

Tour “Gran Yucatan”

2025

Departures Saturday

1st day. Cancun

Arrival at Cancun International Airport, transfer and accommodation in the hotel. Overnight stay.

2nd day. Cancun/Bacalar Lagoon

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, departure for Tulum. Visit the only fortified Maya city by the sea, Tulum, which stands on a rocky promontory overlooking a white beach lapped by the Caribbean Sea. The most famous temple is the Templo de las Pinturas with elaborate decorations and frescoes that, unfortunately, are almost no longer visible. Continuing towards Bacalar, a small town on the shores of a wonderful lagoon called the Lagoon of Seven Colors, for the shades of blue it offers. It is a natural oasis where you can engage in countless nature and water activities. Overnight stay.

3rd day. Lagoon of Bacalar/Chicanná

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, a boat excursion will take place to admire the fantastic colors of the lagoon. At the end, transfer to Chicanná and visit the archaeological site, considered a small elite center due to the rich decorations that adorn its buildings. At the end, transfer to the hotel. Dinner at the hotel and overnight stay.

4th day. Chicanná/Campeche

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure in the morning for a visit to the archaeological sites of Becan and Balankú. At the end, departure for Campeche, an ancient colonial port, along the way, stop and lunch at a restaurant where you can taste excellent regional meat. Arrival and check-in at the hotel. Overnight stay.

5th day. Campeche/Mérida

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure for Uxmal and visit to the archaeological site considered among the most beautiful in Mexico. The charm of Uxmal is enhanced by its location in the Puuc hill region, which means "hills," the only elevations in an almost completely flat peninsula. Of particular interest are the Nunnery Quadrangle, the Governor's Palace, and the Pyramid of the Magician. Lunch at a restaurant. At the end, continue to Mérida and take a brief tour of the city. A grid of streets, perpendicular to each other, constitutes the oldest part of the city. In the center is the Plaza Mayor, lined with trees and featuring a gazebo for Sunday afternoon concerts. On the square face the Government Palace, the Cathedral, the Municipal Palace, and the Casa Montejo. At the end, accommodation in a hotel. Overnight stay.

6th day. Mérida/Riviera Maya

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure towards Chichén-Itzá. Along the way, a brief stop to visit a typical Maya cemetery. Continuation to Chichén Itzá and visit to the largest archaeological area in the Yucatán belonging to the Maya-Toltec culture. This center was the most important city in the Yucatán from the 11th to the 13th century. The most important buildings are El Castillo, the Ball Court, the Temple of the Warriors, and the cenote, which is the sacred well where human sacrifices took place. The majesty and grandeur of Chichén-Itzá are unforgettable. A place that exudes the charm of the bloody Maya history. In the afternoon, continue to the Riviera Maya and check into the hotel. Dinner at the hotel and overnight stay.

7th Day – Riviera Maya/Cancún

Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to Cancun airport.
